

Bitch Critique

I would like to thank South West Hounds committee for inviting me to Judge the Bitch classes in their show. And to all the entries. I had a lovely time this afternoon. It is very difficult to choose one dog over another sadly there is only one first prize in each class. In my opinion today I could have maybe done with more than one first prize but choose I did.

The two puppies in this class are litter sisters. I love them both. Puppies grow at a different pace to one another today for me Gilari Prada Rouge showed herself well. Good eye and lovely expression, nice lay of shoulder with good return lots of bone, she has excellent depth of chest. Nice length of rib to an ample loin. Nice fall of croup into long happy ringed tail. Good angulations on rear. Overall picture well balanced and a nice silky coat. She has a good stride and moved with drive and control for her age. Will defiantly change places with sister on another day.

Very Feminine bitch sweet head with good eye and occiput point. Nice long neck flowing to a good front. An excellent top line holding firm on the move. Good length of rib and flank. Good rear angulations. Well balanced overall look. Fine whisper coat which showed how well she could move flowing around the ring without any effort nice to watch.

Brindle Bitch. Beautiful head lovely eye and expression. She has an excellent lay of shoulder and return on the front which won her BOB. good ribs and nice length of body. nice fall on croup with ringed tail. Her stifle was very good. She is a perfectly balance throughout. Lovely large feet that helped with the drive and reach on movement. Very close decision for first and second but preferred height of first place.
